Notes

All men and women are created equal.

The holder of this passport is not:
1. A strawman in commerce.
2. A corporate fiction.
3. A legal entity.
4. Or a person.

The right to freedom of association is a fundamental and inherent right that all living men and women have.

We abolish slavery in all forms.

A company with a profit motive or without it, does not have authority over a living man or living woman.

Everyone standing under the Common Law Court is living and not a citizen.

The holder of this passport only has a contract with the people, as we stand under common law.

Where there is equality, without consent there is no authority or jurisdiction.

Neither force, nor weapons, nor fear are sources of law.
